Offender Who Escaped from Work Crew Apprehended in Selbyville

Ryan Geary, the offender who escaped Department of Correction (DOC) custody Tuesday afternoon while on work crew detail at Camp Barnes, has been apprehended. He was taken into custody without incident by Delaware State Police around 3 p.m. Friday in Selbyville.

The apprehension was the result of a collaborative effort between DOC Officers and State Police.

Geary, who was serving a sentence for Violation of Probation on an original charge of Burglary 2nd, will now face a felony charge of Escape after Conviction. He is currently being held at the Sussex Correctional Institution in Georgetown.

With Geary back in custody, the Department will now concentrate on determining how he was able to escape from the grounds of Camp Barnes.
